DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 14-18 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 14-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fugazzi('670) in view of the European patent document 1,181,882 and Shulman ('556). Fugazzi discloses a countertop comprising a solid surface material 32 (equivalent to instantly claimed tile) laminated to a fiber reinforced concrete layer 34 comprising Portland cement, water, fly ash and aggregate; see column 5, lines 54-57 and the paragraph bridging columns 12 and 13. The countertop is specifically disclosed as for use on horizontal surfaces in place of a wood laminate; see column 1, lines 5-20 and 45-48, and column 2, lines 7-11. The European patent document discloses a preformed, self supporting article, namely a cabinet base, comprising vertical walls with an opening between the vertical walls, wherein the cabinet base is covered by a typical countertop 30; see Figures 5B and 6. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to apply the countertop of the primary reference on a cabinet base with vertical walls and an opening between the walls as taught by the secondary reference in order to provide the countertop with a typical cabinet style support structure. Shulman discloses the use of expanded polystyrene in cement compositions in order to decrease weight of the resulting structure; see the Abstract and Examples. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide the cement composition use in the primary reference's product with expanded polystyrene in order to decrease the weight of the final product and to vary the amounts of the various ingredients to provide optimum physical properties. Concerning claim 14, Figure 4 of the primary reference discloses a multiple piece surface layer 32. Regarding claim 18, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to make the countertop of the primary reference any size depending on the specific needs for a particular end use.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
